~~DOCKHAND~~
~~Tide's turning. I'm done for the night.~~

~~The dockhand slouches off into the rain.~~

1 INT. HARBOR OFFICE - NIGHT 1

Rain on the glass. ANNA VOSS (40s) reads a file under a desk lamp.

~~THE PHONE RINGS.~~

ANNA
Voss.

MR. DELL (V.O.)
They found the boat. Pier nine.

ANNA
(standing)
Who found it?

MR. DELL (V.O.)
Kids. Don't come alone.

ANNA
NO.

CUT TO:

2 EXT. PIER NINE - CONTINUOUS 2

Wind. A rusted trawler knocks against the pilings. COP #2 holds a flashlight.

COP #2
Detective. You're gonna want to see this.

ANNA
What is it? Tell me now, because I have been up since four and I am
(MORE)

CONTINUED: (2)

ANNA (CONT'D)
not walking onto that boat without knowing what I am walking onto.

COP #2
(beat)
It's Mrs. O'Neil's boy.

MRS. O'NEIL (O.S.)
Where is he?

Anna turns. MRS. O'NEIL, 60s, in a nightgown and boots, at the end of the pier.

ANNA
Ma'am, stay there.

3 INT./EXT. ANNA'S CAR - MOVING - LATER 3 *

Anna drives. The wipers can't keep up. *

ANNA *
(into phone) *
Dell. It's the O'Neil kid. Call his * mother's priest. *

MR. DELL (V.O.) *
I'll call him. *

FADE OUT. *